Filmmaker: Drew Christie

Drew Christie began making animations when his father granted him full access to the family camcorder at the age of 5. He went on to study film at the Seattle Film Institute and animation at The Evergreen State College, where he graduated from in 2007. His films have played in festivals all over the world and his work has been featured in The Atlantic, The Huffington Post, The Daily Beast, Drawn, Cartoon Brew, and Seattle Magazine among others. He lives and works in Seattle, Washington.

Film Forum Curator: Adam Sekuler

Adam Sekuler serves as the program director for Northwest Film Forum located on Capitol Hill. Before arriving in Seattle he was programmer for the nation's first and only dedicated non-fiction theatre, The Bell Auditorium. He is co-founder of Search and Rescue, an ongoing effort to present and preserve discarded archives of 16mm films. He also programmed for the Minneapolis/St. Paul International Film Festival and Sound Unseen. In his early years he booked music for the Whole Music Club, Minneapolis' only all ages venue. During his spare time, Adam makes short films that have screened at festivals and museums. You can find him scheming about bus cabarets and penciling in words on crossword puzzles on the weekends.
